

The extraordinary events of the past week are testing the portfolios and the confidence of investors worldwide. Fidelity's strength and stability have helped us weather challenging markets before, and Fidelity remains steadfast in its core investment principles. The attached articles provide you with information on Fidelity's stability as a firm and some guiding principles to help manage your assets in a volatile market.

In the current environment, careful analysis of credit and equity markets, along with prudent portfolio construction, may be more important than ever.

As always, Fidelity is here for you. Please visit NetBenefits for ongoing updates and market information.
