We would like to thank all the parents for attending the first annual RecKids Talent Show. All of the campers put a lot of hard work into their talents and the counselors had a blast helping them out this week. We hope everyone has a safe and fun fourth of July weekend. We look forward to seeing you during Week Five where the theme is Travel Through Time! Campers are welcome (and encouraged!) to dress up to the theme each day!

The schedule is as follows:

Monday: 20s

Tuesday: 50s

Wednesday: 60s

Thursday: 80s

Friday: 90s

It’s hard to believe that RecKids Camp is already half-way over! The theme for Week Four was “Talent Showcase!”

On Monday, the campers each had the opportunity to demonstrate their unique talents.

We saw everything from dances to hula hoop tricks! The campers have worked hard all week honing their skills and they all are very excited to perform in front of the a live audience on Thursday afternoon at the Art Street Amphitheater.

It was another fun-filled week here at RecKids Camp and we can’t wait to see you back again next week to learn about some of the exciting time periods in American History!
