STUDENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Are you enrolled in college? A portion of our sessions have been created especially for you! The ATWLC is committed to developing these leaders of today and tomorrow. The Student Leadership Institute (SLI) is a component of the Annie T. Thornton Women's Leadership Conference that is dedicated to empowering students who are interested in developing their leadership skills. It is designed to help propel college leaders into a lifetime of service and leadership in their chosen careers and in their communities. Whether you are a seasoned club member or an incoming first-year student looking to get involved, the Student Leadership Institute can get help you get involved and be the best leader you can be.

By participating in the SLI students will:

- Receive a program completion certificate
- Acquire and develop the skills and awareness necessary to become an effective leader on campus, in your community and in your career
- Learn techniques to communicate effectively
- Enhance important life skills
- Participate in co-curricular activities that will augment classroom learning
- Network with UD students, faculty, and staff as well as other area students
- Become an advocate for change

The Annie T. Thornton Women's Leadership Conference is supported by Student Development, Office of Multicultural Affairs, Women's Center, School of Engineering, Dining Services, Residence Life, Student Life and Kennedy Union, ArtStreet, Center for International Programs, Community Wellness Services, and Marianist Hall Learning Space.

WOMEN, COMMUNITY, ACTION & LEADERSHIP

THE 9TH ANNUAL
Annie T. Thornton
WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Saturday, March 27, 2010
University of Dayton, Kennedy Union

MISSION

The University of Dayton is proud to host the 9th annual Annie T. Thornton Women's Leadership Conference.

The Annie T. Thornton Women's Leadership Conference (ATWLC) is an annual, unique, one-day event that brings together an intergenerational group of women to discuss the personal and professional challenges facing women today. It strives to empower women by providing them with resources and skills that will prepare them to be leaders in the 21st century.

The main goals of the WLC are to:

- promote the development and recognition of women's leadership
- to facilitate discussions about critical issues concerning women in our community
- to build a sisterhood that transcends race, religion, and socioeconomic status

Overall the ATWLC attempts to help women realize their full potential as key leaders in our communities and to seek personal fulfillment in their lives.

To register for the conference, please mail the enclosed form or visit <http://campus.udayton.edu/~udwlc> by Friday, March 19, 2010. It may be possible to register on site the day of the conference; however, we cannot guarantee that a meal will be available.

The cost for attending the conference is $10 for students and $20 for faculty, staff and community members. Payment can be made by cash, check, credit card (online registration only), Flyer Express (UD students only) or a University of Dayton department account.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Rev. Dr. Donna Cox

Rev. Dr. Donna Cox is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis where she received both the Ph.D. and M.M. degrees in Performance Practices: Choral Conducting and the University of Dayton where she earned the Masters in Theological Studies. She is Professor of Music at the University of Dayton where she served as Chair of the Department of Music for seven years and Coordinator of Vocal Activities for seven years prior to that.

Dr. Cox has ministered, performed, studied and taught in various parts of the world Dr Cox has performed recitals of African American Arts Songs and Spirituals in Ireland, London and at the National Theatre of Ghana. She enjoys leading small groups in cultural odysseys to Ghana, a place she considers her second home. In addition to studying the vibrant culture of the country, on each trip Dr. Cox seeks to meet some of the needs by distributing school and medical supplies, clothing and other items. She and husband, Gerald have proudly sponsored two of their 'nephews,' Jerry and Abraham, in higher education and have been on-going supporters of the Winneba Youth Choir, Dr. Cox's special project. One of her greatest honors was having a baby girl named for her, Donna Mauwena Dzokoto.

Cox has been a member of Omega Baptist Church since 1993 when she became the Minister of Music. Since vacating that position she has taught Sunday School and founded/conducted the Omega Jubilee Singers. She and Gerald have led the Marriage Builders Ministry for more than ten years. Rev. Cox has a special passion for family/marriage ministry and reaching college students. She is a strong believer in the transformative power of education, especially when it is coupled with the knowledge of God as savior. Rev. Cox has been married to Gerald Cox for over 27 years. They are the proud parents of two adult children, Jonathan and Jamie and grandparents to Hezekiah.

The first 50 paid registrants will be invited to a pre-conference reception with Dr. Cox and will receive a free copy of her book, Angels Encamped About Me: Provision in the Wilderness.
